VISITING EX-STREET CHILDREN FOR IDUL FITRI IN WEST JAKARTA

Volunteers visiting one of the families

Every year during the Idul Fitri Muslim holidays we visit the homes of former street children who are studying with the "Sahabat Anak" organization. This organization of young volunteers provides education for street children to get them off the streets and helps them to get back into the educational school system. The children usually live in very poor areas of Jakarta. On the main day of Ramadan our group of volunteers consisting of 6 to 10 people goes house to house to visit the families of these ex-street children. They don't like to be called "street children" since they are no longer on the streets but are getting an education. Many of them have some amazing stories that are heart breaking and tremendous success stories.

Volunteers with Andika in the back corner

One such boy is Andika, who contracted bone tuberculosis when in the second grade and could no longer walk and so he dropped out of school. After meeting volunteers from Sahabat Anak he was encouraged to go back to school and thanks to sponsors he is now studying in university. He still cannot walk but is such a fighter. His father who works as a motorcycle taxi takes him to and from school every day. We had a fun time at his house.

BAZZAAR WITH EX-STREET CHILDREN IN JAKARTA

This is also a program that we usually do once a year during the fasting month of Ramadan which is organized by Sahabat Anak. Clothing, shoes, toys and other donated items are collected and sold at a bazaar which is held under the flyover bridge in Grogol, West Jakarta. All the ex-street children who study with Sahabat Anak

Daniel with one of the mothers and children are invited but the bazaar is also open to anyone in the area who wants to come. The items are all sold very cheaply (Rp.1,000 to Rp.5,000) and the funds raised are then used for school supplies for the children. Thanks to sponsors we also provided food staple packages for each of the families from Sahabat Anak.

VISITING REFUGEES IN CISARUA, WEST JAVA

This month we contacted RAIC (Refugee Asylum Seekers Information Center) in Jakarta. This is an organization that helps the many refugees who are stranded in Jakarta waiting to be resettled by UNHCR. Most of these refugees are fleeing from the Middle East or Africa and landed in Indonesia hoping to be resettled in Australia. We visited some of the families in the Cisarua area outside Jakarta and brought goodie bags for them.

The refugees are not allowed to work and so have to rely on concerned people to provide basic food necessities. One family we visited was a couple with 5 children from Afghanistan who were desperate to get daily food for their family.

BREAKING FAST WITH SEMBILANGAN VILLAGE IN NORTH JAKARTA

During the fasting month we conducted a large fast breaking meal for the whole village of Sembilangan in North Jakarta. This fishing village has about 700 people and thanks to a dear sponsor who provided the meals and drinks for everyone. We had to take 3 small fishing boats to transport all the meals and volunteers to the village. Our friend and her 3 children also attended and we had wonderful time all together.

Volunteers Esther and John arrange an excursion for all the orphans from Depok orphanage to go to the zoo in South Jakarta. Esther and Jessica also prepared a special meal for the children. These are very awesome treats for the children.
